THE NATIONAL DEFICIT FOREBODES WAR TAXES

The Expenses of No Nation on Earth Ever Increased At Such a Ratio As Ours Have.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The approaching necessity of forcing wartime taxes on the people to offset the annual $120,000,000 deficit in the national finances is directing attention in a striking manner to the extravagance of the last three Republican administrations.

Uncle Sam's distressed treasury is now considered by both parties to be the biggest and most serious question before the American people. Along with the effects of the tariff it is certain to be the absorbing issue in the Congressional elections of 1911. The Republican leaders are practically without material to meet charges of gross wastefulness in the conducting of the Government machinery, and it may be said without contradiction they have a wholesome fear of the outcome of a campaign involving such issues as they must prepare to face.

The Government is spending more money than in any period of its history when not actually engaged in war. And under the estimates already arranged for the Taft administration the money-spending campaign promises to reach a higher mark than during the Roosevelt administration, when the deficit was the largest ever faced by the Government.

A reign of wastefulness started in with the day Grover Cleveland turned over the administration to his successor, William McKinley. Figures tell a story so momentous it is almost impossible to fully comprehend. The aggregate appropriations of the last Cleveland administration, in the fiscal years 1893 to 1897, were $1,574,105,-558.07. The aggregate appropriations for the last Roosevelt term, taking in the fiscal years 1907 to 1910, amounted to $3,214,993,198.97, or more than twice the sum required to run the Government during the Cleveland administration.

The expenses of no nation on earth ever increased at such a ratio. One of Cleveland's early problems was to prevent a huge annual surplus. In addition to a deficit of $120,000,000 for the present fiscal year, the deficit for the next fiscal year promises to be $134,000,000.

Here are the figures which best tell the story of progress in Republican extravagance:

Appropriations Last Biennial Period.

Cleveland's admin...	$ 954,496,055.13
McKinley's admin....	1,475,886,291.61
Roosevelt's Admin....	2,055,336,796.97
Taft (estimated first biennial period)....	2,500,000,000.00

The total appropriations for the fiscal year 1905 amounted to $796,633,-864.79; for 1910, $1,044,014; advance in year's expenses, $247,380,433.44.

What becomes of this huge sum—the $247,380,433.44 increase? The naval act is increased $14,271,313.58. Much of this sum is wasted, spent on projects from which the American people get no return. Mare Island navy yard, off San Francisco bay, is an example. Fourteen million dollars have been spent on it. No first-class battleship has ever reached this yard, and in the opinion of Government experts none ever will, because of the lack of deep water approaches.

Then why does the Government con-

ATTEMPT MADE ON ROOSEVELT'S LIFE

STEERAGE PASSENGER MAKES EFFORT TO KILL EX-PRESIDENT.

Captured By Sailors and Taken to Port in Irons—Said Roosevelt Tried to Poison Him.

LONDON, March 30.—A dispatch from Horta, Azores, says an attempt was made on the life of ex-President Roosevelt aboard the steamship Hamburg, which arrived there at noon yesterday. The attempt was frustrated and the would-be assassin placed in irons.

Col. Roosevelt is in excellent health and was enthusiastically received on the arrival of the steamship. Kermit Roosevelt went ashore and indulged in some shooting. He also collected some specimens.

Kermit Dances, His Father Does Not.

HORTA, FAYAL, AZORES, March 30.—The steamer Hamburg, with Theodore Roosevelt and the members of his party on board, put in here yesterday to leave the mails.

A. De Freitas, the Governor of Horta, came out to the Hamburg and welcomed Mr. Roosevelt, after which the members of the Roosevelt party were taken ashore by the Governor and driven through the town. There was no official reception.

Mr. Roosevelt attended a dance on board the Hamburg Saturday evening. He did not dance, but his son, Kermit, took part in the entertainment and danced with several of the young ladies on board.

All of the members of the Roosevelt party are well.

The Hamburg left here yesterday afternoon for Gibraltar by way of Ponta Delgalda on the Island of San Miguel.

Said Roosevelt Tried to Poison Him.

NEW YORK, March 30.—Giuseppi Tosti, a steerage passenger on the Hamburg, is the man who threatened ex-President Roosevelt, according to a special dispatch from Horta to The World. The incident happened soon after the Hamburg was losing sight of America. Then Tosti broke from his companions in the steerage and started for the upper deck, where Mr. Roosevelt was standing with his son, Kermit.

"He has let them take away my child," Tosti is said to have shouted in English. "Now he shall pay for it."

Sailors seized Tosti, quickly mastered him, carried him below and by the captain's orders, put him in irons. The incident, it is said, is known only to Mr. Roosevelt and a few of his fellow passengers.

Tosti, after his imprisonment, refused for four days to eat, crying, "Roosevelt is trying to poison me."

The ship's doctor now must taste all food offered to Tosti before he will eat it.

GOOD MEETING PROMISED.

Able Preacher and Fine Singers At Baptist Church.

The revival services now in progress at the First Baptist church give promise of a great meeting. Dr. T. T. Martin, who is conducting these services, is one of the strongest expository preachers in the Southern pulpit. He is a man of broad culture and experience, not a clap-trap, but a Bible preacher. A great opportunity for the city to sit under the preaching of a great teacher. Don't fail to hear him at every opportunity. He is strongly backed by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Schofield of Chicago, who are perhaps the sweetest Gospel singers who have yet honored Gainesville by their presence and songs. Mr. Schofield is exceedingly anxious to form a large chorus, and all singers of the city, irrespective of church or creed, are most cordially invited to take part. Services at 3:30 and 7:30 p. m. daily.

BEXLEY AND OSTEEN FACED JURY OF PEERS

Two Prominent Young Men On Trial For the Alleged Murdor of W. H. Moreland.

Circuit court assembled Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, the room being well filled with special veniremen and spectators.

Sheriff Ramsey made the following return of the seventy-five veniremen drawn from the box from which to select a jury in the case of M. A. Bexley and Truby Osteen, the two young white men charged with the murder of W. H. Moreland at High Springs: J. H. Law, J. M. Haile, C. H. Neal, T. K. Godbey, W. S. McDowall, B. M. Tench, L. R. Kinsey, S. J. Collins, H. A. Pickett, O. L. Feaster, R. W. Clark, W. P. McLeod, F. Cellon, O. B. Bailey, J. L. Jameson, F. B. Atwater, Pearce Thomas, Jr., W. H. Barry, J. L. Stokes, A. J. Feaster, H. Davis, J. H. Holly, Jas. W. Boulware, J. E. Starling, J. E. Crumpton, Fabian Thomas, J. B. H. Gay, R. L. Polk, J. W. Peacock, A. G. Hill, M. S. Brown, Thos. Baker, Henry Fletcher, C. M. Dell, E. T. Henderson, R. L. Baird, J. G. Beville, F. M. Yearwood, W. D. Dukes, R. B. Livingston, E. D. Phifer, W. C. Bradshaw, W. T. Chesnut, G. H. Gibbons, Frank Boales, J. U. DeLoach, R. H. Duke, R. G. Zetrouer, R. C. Bowers, Shade Osteen, T. B. Horn, F. T. Rutherford, John Y. Fleming, E. D. Thomas, W. M. Blitch, P. B. H. Dudley, F. M. Hartman, W. J. Aiken, Appleton Feagle, E. F. Williams, A. V. The court excused Messrs. Atwater, Matthews, Hines, Barry, Stokes, Gleason, Rosenberger, Hester, Davis, E. D. Thomas, Law, McDowall, T. A. Gay, Pearce Thomas, Crumpton, Mixson, Williams, Osteen, Ellis, DeLoach, Peacock, Livingston, Beville and McFadden, while Messrs. Cain, Baker, Boulware, Baird, Hartman and Appleton Feagle were not to be found in the county, and E. D. Phifer failed to answer to his name.

The work of impaneling a jury was then begun, beginning with the first name on the regular panel for the week. The two prisoners took their seats at the bar, surrounded by Judge Bexley, father of young Bexley, Mrs. Osteen, mother of the other defendant, and Cols. Stripling, Thrasher and Broome, their counsel.

S. E. Bauknight disqualified himself; the State challenged W. L. Gore and D. A. Robertson of the regular panel.

The calling of names from the special venire was then begun, two names at a time. T. K. Godbey was disqualified because he did not believe in capital punishment. L. R. Kinsey was excused by the State. H. A. Pickett completed the jury of twelve as tendered by the State.

The defense excused W. D. Fagan, W. P. Moseley. E. Baird was excused

Mrs. Farmer Executed In the Electric Chair

AUBURN, N. Y., March 30.—Murmuring a prayer for her soul, Mrs. Mary Farmer was quietly led to the electric chair in Auburn prison shortly after 6 o'clock yesterday morning and executed for the murder of Mrs. Sarah Brennan at Brownville last April.

The execution of Mrs. Farmer—the second infliction of the death penalty on a woman by electricity in this State—was effected without sensational incident. Father Hickey, spiritual adviser of the condemned woman, following the execution, gave out a statement signed by Mrs. Farmer, in which she declared that her husband, James Farmer, was entirely innocent and knew nothing of the crime until after it had been committed.

Mrs. Farmer walked unfalteringly to the death chair, her eyes half closed and clasping a crucifix in her hands.

One of the officials adjusted the leg electrodes. The rubber mask was adjusted over the eyes and the head electrode fastened. A spoken word from the State electrician and the attendants, nurses and Warden Benham stepped back from the thick rubber mat upon which the death chair is placed.

The hand of State Electrician Davis traced a slow arch with the switch behind the curtain. A half spoken prayer was halted as the condemned woman convulsed in the leather harness that bound her to the chair. A woman attendant covered her face with her hands. Only the clicking of the tightening straps and the murmur of the dynamos in the adjoining room could be heard.

The first contact lasted a full minute, the voltage starting at 1,840 and being gradually lowered to 200, then raised again to the full limit of 1,840 volts. The current was applied at 6:05 o'clock. The current was shut off and a strange sound—half moan and half murmur—came from the woman's lips. Dr. Gerin and Dr. Spitzka applied the stethoscope to the heart while Electrician Davis felt the artery in the neck. Muscular action was noted by the physcians and again the current passed through the woman's body for a period of a few seconds. Once more the physicians stepped forward and applied the tests to determine if life still remained in the limp figure in the chair. For the third time the State electrician sent the current through the body. The physicians among the State's witnesses were then called upon one after another to examine the woman and pronounce her dead.

Dr. Gerin directed the prison attendants to remove the body to the autopsy room. The prison physician said:

"Mrs. Farmer was killed at the first contact. There was some slight muscular movement as is usual in electric executions and the additional contacts were applied until the tremors had ceased. She was officially pronounced dead at 6:15."

The physicians report that the autopsy disclosed that Mrs. Farmer was normal in every respect and that the brain showed no lesions that would indicate a criminal tendency.

Chief Crazy Snake's Band Surrounded By Soldiers

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., March 30.—Chitti Harjo (Crazy Snake) was surrounded at midnight Sunday night in the North Canadian bottoms near Pierce. Three hundred militiamen, cowboys and deputy sheriffs were closing in on him and his capture was expected at daybreak.

A detachment of Crazy Snake's band of belligerent Indians was surrounded by deputy sheriffs yesterday afternoon near Crazy Snake's home and a lively battle ensued. More than 200 shots were fired and one Indian was killed. Eight Indians were captured and the remainder fled with the deputies in pursuit.

There were about fifteen Indians in the band and they had taken refuge in a house. The deputies had tracked them for some distance.

Advancing from all sides, the posse fired a volley at the frail house. The Indians rushed out, scattered among the trees and made a valiant defense. The posse, firing steadily, advanced and routed the band. None of those captured is seriously injured but it is said that a number of other Indians were hit with bullets.

Crazy Snake's band apparently has broken up into numerous small groups. It seemed at nightfall that each Indian was trying to accomplish his own escape without regard for the grand dreams of the chieftain to realize which they were called together Sunday by the smoke of the signal fires. All efforts at organized resistance seemed to have been dropped.

The militiamen, too, scattered in bands, and invaded the hilly wooded region of the Creek nation in a determined effort to hunt down both leaders and members of the war party. The soldiers soon captured eight members of Crazy Snake's forces. Among those arrested are Little Tiger, a subchief, and Simla Harjo. The latter is not related to Chitti Harjo.

Most of these were heavily armed.

The captives were started for the militia camp at Hickory Grounds under heavy guard. Orders were issued that the search be kept up and numerous parties went out during the early hours of the night to round up the renegades.

The Indian killed by the posse was the only fatality of the day reported to Col. Hoffman, who is in command of the State troops.

There are numerous rumors of engagements. One story was that a posse of farmers near Checotah fought a large band of negro renegades and killed twenty. This and similar reports cannot be confirmed.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Jones yesterday reported that he believed his posse had part of Crazy Snake's band surrounded, including the chief himself. This gave rise to a story that the Snake leader was killed. No confirmation of this could be obtained and it probably is incorrect.

Tonight it was thought that Crazy Snake had carried out his last night's intention of seeking refuge in the Hickory Hills and that he was supported there by some of his chief followers.

Despite all the talk about Crazy Snake, officers have yet to find anybody who has seen him since Sunday morning. Their only belief that he is commanding the Indians personally is based on the information choked out of his son by deputies Sunday when they hanged him by the neck until he expressed an anxiety to talk.

SAID TO HAVE SKIPPED WITH ANOTHER'S WIFE

SUCH IS REPORT CONCERNING S. G. GAY OF TRENTON.

Occurrence Was Not Unexpected By His Wife, It Is Said—A Regrettable Affair.

S. G. Gay of Trenton is alleged to have left this country with one Mrs. Freeman, who was a married woman and resident of that section.

Owing to the prominence of the families the news spread very rapidly, but as no efforts are now being made to locate the guilty parties it is presumed they will be allowed to pursue their course

Fortunately for Mr. Freeman, there were no children left for the father to look after, but on the other hand there were three left that Mrs. Gay will in future have to support.

Gay is well connected in the West End and was for many years one of the prominent young men of his section.

Mrs. Freeman, with whom he is supposed to have skipped, was a very attractive woman, and so well did she deceive her husband that he had not the slightest indication that she was not happy and contented.

WILL OF LATE C. W. CHASE IS PROBATED

FILED BEFORE JUDGE MASON FOR RECORD ON TUESDAY.

Gives Wife One-Third of Entire Estate, Father An Allowance and Brother Remainder.

The will of the late C. W. Chase was filed for probate on Tuesday before County Judge Mason and is in part as follows:

First, it requires that all of his bills and funeral expenses be paid. His wife, Minerva G. Chase, was given one-third of all his property, real, personal and mixed, to have and to hold to her absolutely—this provision being in lieu of all right of dower in his estate.

To his father, L. W. Chase, $2,000 per annum was given so long as he shall live.

All of the residue and remainder of the estate, real, personal and mixed, was given to his brother, F. H. Chase of Chicago, provided he was living. In the event of his death it was to go to his widow by one-half and the remainder to be divided equally to the children, share and share alike.

It authorizes and empowers his brother to act as executor and to sell or exchange any part or all of his real estate or belongings as he may deem best.

This document was made by him during October, 1908.

Receiving Many Gifts.

The mention in The Sun of Sunday relative to the condition of Mrs. R. H. Owen has been the means of her receiving a bountiful supply of clothing and other necessities which was generously donated by ladies all over the city. Nearly every day packages have been received at the sheriff's office with instructions to convey them to Mrs. Owen.

Witness Was Arrested.

Morris Pinkney, a negro who was a witness here in the Trapp murder case, was arrested and brought to this city yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Bruton. The darkey had pleaded sick but his excuse was insufficient to Solicitor Rivers, who had the judge investigate the matter, with the above result.

Held Interesting Shoot.

The members of the Gainesville Gun Club were out for another practice shoot yesterday afternoon. They are fast becoming good marksmen and several high scores were made by the contestants, which shows what practice will do for them in shooting at the clay birds.

CURED BRONCHITIS.

Mrs. Hopkins Says Her Life Was Saved—Choked and Gasped for Breath.

"Some five years ago I was taken with a bad attack of bronchitis. I was affected with a bronchial cough and cold; the cough was generally much more apparent at night, and I would wake up choking and gasping for breath, and there seemed to be a terrible stoppage in my throat and tubes. My throat was tender and irritable, and had an aching sensation, which was especially bad at times. I doctored and used several remedies, but received no permanent relief until I used Hyomei. This remedy is certainly infallible, and saved my life, and I accord it the credit which it deserves. There is nothing too strong for me to say regarding Hyomei."—Mrs. Ada Hopkins, 8 Cutter avenue, Coldwater, Mich., August 22, 1908.

for cause. O. L. Feaster, R. W. Clark and W. P. McLeod were called in order to fill the box. Mr. McLeod was excused on account of an error in copying his initials on the list as furnished the attorneys. F. Cellon was disqualified on account of relationship to one of the defendants. O. B. Bailey was called. R. W. Clark stood aside for cause, having fixed opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendants. J. L. Jameson was called and excused by the State. A. J. Feaster was challenged by the State. A. B. Feagle qualified. The State excused H. A. Pickett. Sam Rogers qualified and the State again tendered the panel.

At this juncture counsel for defendants asked permission to retire a few moments to confer about the case, which was granted, it then being 11:30 o'clock.

Counsel and defendants returned in a few moments, when the court excused O. L. Feaster for cause. T. C. Scott qualified. M. S. Phifer was excused for cause. E. Dyess took his seat in the jury box. The State tendered the jury for the third time.

The defense excused O. B. Bailey, and J. H. Holly was called and completed the panel of twelve, which was for the fourth time tendered by Solicitor Rivers. The defense excused J. M. Haile, and James Raulerson was called and qualified in the opinion of the State Solicitor, who tendered the panel once more. The defense excused Mr. Raulerson. J. E. Starling again completed the twelve men, when a recess was taken until 2 o'clock without the panel being tendered.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session was called to order at 2:04 o'clock, when the defendants were joined by an additional number of their female relatives.

The panel was again broken by defense peremptorily challenging J. H. Holly. Fabian Thomas took his place and made up the twelve, but the defense exercised its right and excused J. W. Alsop. J. B. H. Gay was called and excused by the State because he was prejudiced against circumstantial evidence. R. L. Polk was excused by the State, which exhausted eight of its ten challenges.

A. G. Hill qualified, and C. A. W. Thomas was excused by the defense. M. S. Brown qualified, and W. C. Kincaid was excused by the defense, Henry Fletcher being called to the box. A. B. Feagle was excused by the defense, and C. M. Dell was called and qualified, whereupon A. G. Hill vacated his seat at the request of the defense. F. M. Yearwood qualified, and the State again tendered the panel, but the defense broke it by excusing Fabian Thomas, whereupon W. D. Dukes was called and also excused by the defense. W. C. Bradshaw was excused for cause, and W. T. Chestnut called and excused for like cause. G. H. Gibbons was excused for cause and R. H. Doke was called and qualified, but C. M. Dell stood aside upon peremptory challenge by the defendants. K. G. Zetrouer was excused by the State because he would not hang a person upon circumstantial evidence. T. B. Horn took his seat in the box, and the jury was tendered, accepted and sworn as follows:

J. E. Starling, Henry Fletcher, T. B. Horn, T. M. Griffin, C. H. Neal, Sam Rogers, T. C. Scott, E. Dyess, M. S. Brown, F. M. Yearwood, R. H. Doke, S. J. Collins.

It was exactly 3:17 o'clock when the jury was completed and sworn. After the jury had been sworn Mr. Horn addressed the judge and said he did not remember having been asked if he was prejudiced against circumstantial evidence, intimating that he did not believe very strongly in such evidence, but he was told to keep his seat, it then being too late for the State Solicitor to challenge him on that ground, though it is well-known that the State depends mainly upon circumstantial evidence for conviction. It is the reporter's recollection that the Solicitor did ask the question, and Mr. Horn no doubt misunderstood the question as propounded him. Had the State challenged Mr. Horn it would have exhausted its ten challenges, whereas the defense had six left them, each of the defendants being entitled to ten.

As the State did not rely entirely upon circumstantial evidence most of its peremptory challenges were exhausted upon veniremen who did not believe in circumstantial evidence.

At a quarter to 4 o'clock Solicitor Rivers asked for an adjournment until 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. Col. Stripling, leading counsel for defense, opposed the delay and announced that they were ready to proceed with the taking of testimony, but inasmuch as Col. Rivers said the adjournment would really expedite matters the judge granted the request.

It is said that the adjournment was really asked for by the State Solicitor because he discovered that he had permitted the jury to be sworn prior to the arraignment of the defendants. Just what disposition this will cause to be made of the case will be known when court reconvenes this morning.

When Boston Shuddered.

"The superior intelligence of Boston continues to excite the envy of her sister cities," recently observed a prominent Bostonian, "and I propose to add fuel to the flame by citing the newest instance thereof. A little boy in the Back Bay district, at whose house occur many meetings of a certain literary club, was asked not long ago by a returned Bostonian what had become of a family named Deering.

"'The Deerings?' said the boy. 'Oh, they're not asked here any more. They're no longer on mother's list.'

"'No longer on the list? What's the matter?'

"'Why, haven't you heard? Drusilla Deering sent a sonnet to the Atlantic that contained twenty lines!'"—Lippincott's.

Making a Bolt For It.

The monotony of crime in the police stations is relieved oftener than is generally supposed by an infusion of unexpected humor. This happy faculty of tickling the magistrate's sense of humor won a prisoner in a police station his liberty the other day.

The prisoner had told the magistrate that he was a locksmith by trade, and the magistrate asked:

"Well, were you on business in this gambling house at 2 o'clock in the morning?"

"Yes, your honor," replied the prisoner calmly. "I was making a bolt for the door."

Unequaled as a Cure for Croup.

"Besides being an excellent remedy for colds and throat troubles, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is unequaled as a cure for croup," says Harry Wilson, of Waynetown, Ind. When given as soon as the croupy cough appears, this remedy will prevent the attack. It is used successfully in many thousands of homes. For sale by all druggists.

Very Convenient.

BECAME DESPONDENT OVER LOSS OF $50

POSTMASTER DORSEY WROTE A LETTER TO THIS EFFECT.

Old Gentleman's Condition Is Very Critical, But Still Survives from His Wounds.

Further information received from McIntosh Tuesday was to the effect that Postmaster Dorsey, the aged gentleman who had shot himself and cut his throat in an endeavor to end his life, was still living and there was chance of his recovering from the wounds.

In the letter to his wife telling her why he had committed the deed he mentioned the fact that he was short some $50 in his accounts and it was time to make his report to the Government. Rather than face the charge, or appeal to some of his friends, he preferred death.

He has held this position for many years and was a gentleman universally esteemed by the community in general and anyone there would have helped him at any time and been glad of the opportunity of doing so.

While he is not out of danger, there are now strong hopes that he will survive.

The shock to the community was a great one and came as a surprise to the many that knew him, and the first rumor that gained headway to the effect that he had been murdered spread rapidly, the entire community volunteering their assistance in locating the guilty ones.

Friends will lend their aid to the unfortunate man and matters will be adjusted at once that his good wife may carry on the affairs of the office.

Let Me Tell You Something

A woman who is sick and suffering, and won't at least try a medicine which has the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is to blame for her own wretched condition.

There are literally hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering.

Read what these women say:

Camden, N. J.—"It is with pleasure that I send my testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, hoping it may induce other suffering women to avail themselves of the benefit of this valuable remedy.

"I suffered from pains in my back and side, sick headaches, no appetite, was tired and nervous all the time, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman—and this valuable medicine shall always have my praise."—Mrs. W. P. Valentine, 902 Lincoln Ave., Camden, N. J.

Erie, Pa.—"I suffered for five years from female troubles, and at last was almost helpless. I tried three doctors but they did me no good. My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has made me well and strong. I hope all suffering women will just give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, for it is worth its weight in gold."—Mrs. J. P. Endlich, R. F. D. 7, Erie, Pa.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering from the same trouble.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.

Live Oak's new $15,000 city hall will be completed within the next few days and the keys turned over to the city. The building is a very handsome one, nicely finished, and will be an ornament to the city for many years to come.

A white man supposed to be A. V. West was found dead Sunday morning along the Atlantic Coast Line track at Reeves. There were no marks on the body to show that it had been struck by a passing train, and some are inclined to believe that the man had been the victim of foul play.

W. R. Comfort, president of the Reid Ice Cream Company of New York, and John C. Huyler, the millionaire candy manufacturer, who have recently purchased a large tract of land in the Everglades, are having 300 acres drained on which they expect to plant sugar cane. Comfort and Huyler are large users of sugar and expect to manufacture all the sugar they use on their Dade county plantation.

PORTLAND, MAINE, CHILD

Ill, Weak and Emaciated, Restored to Health by Vinol

"Our little daughter, six years of age, after a severe attack of the measles, which developed into pneumonia, was left pitifully thin, weak and emaciated. She had no appetite, and her stomach was so weak it could not retain food. She lay in this condition for weeks, and nothing the doctor prescribed did a bit of good, and we were beginning to think she would never recover.

"At this time we commenced to give her Vinol, and the effect was marvelous. The doctor was amazed at her progress, and when we told him we were giving her Vinol, he replied, 'It is a fine remedy, keep it up.' We did so, and she recovered her health and strength months before the doctor thought she could." J. W. Flagg, Portland, Me.

Vinol cures conditions like this because in a natural manner it increases the appetite, tones up the digestive organs, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body.

VINOL is sold in Gainesville by W. M. Johnson, Druggist.

ONE BUSINESS REFORM.

Brought About by Frank Statements From Former Employees.

If the manager of a business institution knew all that his employees know about the details of the business many things would be different. The manager of a large mercantile house recently conceived the idea of writing a personal letter to every employee who had left the house during the last five years, inviting a frank statement of the reason for leaving. The former employees, now expecting neither censure nor favor, were very frank and explicit and, as a rule, wrote letters that could not fail to command respectful attention. One man told how hard he had worked to support his mother and how, when he asked for an increase, he was shifted back and forth between different superiors for several weeks without having his request rejected or acceded to and he grew tired and sought another position. Another told of the impositions of the department manager and of his inability to get relief from a nagging disposition which was taking the heart out of hundreds of other men in his department. Many points of obvious mismanagement were brought to light which had virtually driven away good men who had been educated to the business. The manager has been busy ever since instituting reforms based upon the information he received.—Collier's Weekly.

Good Liniment.

You will hunt a good while before you find a preparation that is equal to Chamberlain's Liniment as a cure for muscular and rheumatic pains, for the cure of sprains and soreness of the muscles. It is equally valuable for lame back and all deep-seated muscular pains. 25 and 50-cent sizes for sale by all druggists.

Death in Various Forms.

A crank came running into the office and said that a man swallowed a two foot rule and died by inches. The editor started out at once to learn further particulars of the death and, meeting Dr. Martin, told him about the case. He said that was nothing; that he had a patient once who swallowed a thermometer and died by degrees. A couple of bystanders just then chipped in. One of them said it reminded him of a fellow in Kansas who swallowed a pistol and went off easy. The other one said he had a friend who took a quart of applejack and died in good spirits.—Exchange.

A Swollen Jaw

Is not pretty nor pleasant. Whether it's caused by neuralgia, toothache or accident, Ballard's Snow Liniment will reduce the swelling and relieve the pain. The great and sure cure for rheumatism, cuts, burns, bruises, scalds—any and all aches and pains. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The Hissing.

"I frequently experience a hissing sound in my ears," remarked a patient to a doctor. "What would you advise me to do?"

"What is your occupation?" asked the medico.

"I'm an actor."

"Then I'd advise you to adopt some other vocation."

A Pleasant Physic.

When you want a pleasant physic give Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets a trial. They are mild and gentle in their action and always produce a pleasant cathartic effect. Call at any drug store for a sample.

Keep your eye on the want ads. There may be something advertised which is of interest to you.

PLANS FOR GREAT DAY HERE ABOUT JUNE 15

BIG BARBECUE AND SPEAKING TO CELEBRATE THE DAY.

Progressive Citizens Want to Make It One Long to Be Remembered By the People.

Preliminary plans are now under way to make June 15th a gala day for Gainesville.

About this time the supervising architect of the new Government building will have things far enough advanced for the laying of the cornerstone, which will be a great event in the city's history.

The plans that are now under consideration are to make this a great day by giving a big barbecue and have distinguished speakers here to address the people—showing what we have to be thankful for in the way of the new and magnificent structure now being erected.

A committee will doubtless be appointed within the next few days to further perfect the plans and then a general meeting will be called and subscriptions solicited from the people to make this a grand event.

Lovers

Of good health should prevent sickness instead of letting themselves get sick and then try to cure it. So long as you keep your liver, bowels and stomach in a healthy and active condition you won't get sick. Ballard's Herbine relieves constipation, inactive liver and all stomach and bowel troubles. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Modest Goldsmith.

Oliver Goldsmith was an underpaid man from start to finish. Two hundred and fifty dollars for "The Vicar of Wakefield" was bad enough, yet for "The Traveler" he got but $100 and $25 for his "English Grammar." For "The Deserted Village," however, his publisher sent him $500. This he at once returned, with the message: "It is too much. It is near 5 shillings a couplet, which is more than any book owner can afford or, indeed, any modern poetry is worth." So he died with $10,000 worth of debts. "Was ever poet so trusted before?" said Dr. Johnson.

Wouldn't any woman be happy,
After years of backache suffering,
Days of misery, nights of unrest,
The distress of urinary troubles,
She finds relief and cure?
No reason why any Gainesville reader
Should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. John Smith, 307 E. Magnolia street, Gainesville, Fla., says: "I suffered from a weak back and severe pains in my sides for a long time. I could not stoop without experiencing sharp twinges through my body and if I did so it was difficult to regain an erect position. I was also subject to headaches and at times was very nervous. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended for these troubles, I procured a box and began their use. In a short time I felt much better. The pains lost their severeness and I gained in strength. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills an excellent remedy and am pleased to recommend them."

The Kaiser has forbidden German army officers to smoke in the presence of ladies at formal social functions. Surely this imperial utterance will not bring forth an anti-Kaiser protest from the German masses.

The editor of a country paper received the following query: "Can you tell me what the weather will be next month?" In reply he wrote: "It is my belief that the weather next month will be very much like your subscription." The inquirer wondered for an hour what the editor was driving at, when he happened to think of the word "unsettled." He went in the next day and squared his account.

GLOVES AND THE TARIFF.

Now that Congress has fairly embarked upon tariff revision, criticism of individual items is in order. In the increase of the tariff on women's gloves, an opportunity to test the strength of the movement for increasing the political rights of women is afforded. Our manufacturers of gloves have always had an extraordinary influence at Washington, not merely in securing lavish protection for their product, but also in evading Congressional investigation over army contracts and such matters, even at times when any corporation might be considered fair game.

For a very large class of our women gloves are not a luxury. The self-respecting work girl must wear them. They are a necessity for a class by no means lavishly paid. The lowest increase is 33 cents a pair, and it needs hardly be said that the retailer will put on more than this or supply an inferior quality. For an industry already highly protected, it must be owned that this increase is most significant, and presses very hardly upon a class with small means of defense.

Naturally the department stores are circularizing their women customers. But besides this, the women s clubs are beginning to move. If gloves are indispensable, stockings are even more so, and these come in for a heavy increase also. The impost in fact seems calculated to set the entire female population of America by the ears, particularly as certain powerful interests which might reasonably be expected to help pay deficits escape scot free.

No increase in excise is proposed; the brewer and the distiller pay no more under the new taxation scheme than they did before. What renders this omission still more pointed is that the only grain which is cheapened by provision downward is barley with a 30 per cent reduction. This of course is the raw material of a most important part of the liquor trade. If the Women's Christian Temperance Union could abolish the army canteen in face of the opposition of virtually the whole military department they are likely to be heard from in Washington on the new tariff.

Surely the Republican party is singularly blind to the signs of the times. They are laying up magnificent ammunition for their enemies at the next Congressional election. They are not playing fair, and they are forgetting that the days have gone by for that crude favortism which gave such an unenviable odor to the Dingley tariff law. It is quite possible that such schedules as those on women's gloves and stockings may pass into law, thanks to the selfish bargaining of individual interests, but if they do President Taft's administration will start with an ugly black mark against it.

A workingman and a minister have been telling what each would do if he were in the other's shoes, in a pair of vigorous articles in two recent issue of The Sunday School Times—"If I Were a Minister," by a Working man; and "If I Were a Workingman," by a Minister. Each man really seems to know what he is talking about, and deals some straight body-blows, yet in a spirit of such friendly common sense that the man at whom he is talking must, if honest, inevitably respect his fairness and his force. If every minister and every workingman in the land should digest and act upon the straight talk of these messages, there would be a new era in the church and the shop. There is considerable mystery as to who the anonymous writers are. We have the editor's word that they are bona fide minister and workingman. Each seems to be solidly "on his job," yet each has an unusual insight into the other fellow's job. Perhaps that's because each is a real man, and a hard worker besides.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Norfolk Landmark says: "Chairman Payne says that his tariff bill is a sharp reduction from the Dingley average, and Champ Clark says the Payne average is higher than the Dingley. We wish Ida Tarbell would look into the matter and let us know just what is what. She's not in politics and can't be fooled, and her statement would be taken as conclusive."

The Washington Post says: "The South can, and the South ought to, manufacture not only all the cotton goods needed in America, but ought to export a hundred or two million dollars worth annually. At least half of the raw cotton exported could be successfully manufactured here and the finish product exported. We do a little export business in this line, but we are supplying British factories with the very material with which to compete with us in foreign trade, for cotton goods. Some day America will manufacture the cotton goods for the world. Why should not the South hasten that day?"

The Hartford Times says: "The Philippine free trade scheme, which every Democratic Congressman ought to vote against, on principle, but which most of them will probably support, will go through the House of Representatives and will then probably be killed by the Republican Senators. Such, at least, is the news from Washington. Intelligent Democratic leadership in the House might secure for the party the credit of defeating this vicious scheme, but the opportunity to score a point against Philippine annexation is too good a one for the dullards on the Democratic side of the house not to miss."

A new transportation company has been organized in Apalachicola which will operate between New Orleans, Mobile, Pensacola and Apalachicola.

A Religious Author's Statement.

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy. J. W. McCollum & Co.

tinue to waste money on this yard, which, declare the naval experts, would be practically useless in time of war when the nation would be depending upon it as a base for a battle fleet? The answer is, politics.

There are several political navy yards. Mare Island is known as Senator Perkins' yard. In his campaign speeches in San Francisco Senator Perkins claims credit for having induced the Government to appropriate the $14,000,000 for Mare Island. If the Government should quit appropriating money, setting up the fact the yard is worthless as a Pacific base, Perkins would be in the position of having caused the Government to waste $14,000,000. So Senator Perkins naturally takes the position his navy yard is the finest in the world. He says he will see that the appropriations for Mare Island are substantially increased every year. He is chairman of the Naval Affairs Committee. Hale has a political navy yard, which also helps to explain why war-time taxes will soon be necessary.

President Roosevelt introduced a new era of public expenditures by establishing a principal that public money may be expended not alone under authority of law, but also by "executive choice," as illustrated by innumerable commissions, councils and boards. The existence and activities of these boards appointed solely by the President make no inconsiderable drain upon funds appropriated for specific and legitimate functions of government by misapplying the same to expenses of junketing about the country and in diverting the services of department employees from their proper and lawful occupations.

The march of extravagance of the Roosevelt administration is concisely shown in the following comparative table, which sets out the appropriations by Congress for the quadrennial period representing the fiscal years 1894 to 1897, the last Cleveland administration, and the appropriations for the fiscal years 1907 to 1910, the last four years of the Roosevelt administration:

CUTICURA CURED HIS SORE EYES

When 63 Years Old Eye-Balls and Lids Became Terribly Inflamed—Was Unable to Go About—Home Remedies and Professional Treatment were Equally Unsuccessful.

TOOK FRIEND'S ADVICE: HAS NO MORE TROUBLE

"About two years ago my eyes got in such a condition that I was unable to go about. They were terribly inflamed, both the balls and lids. I tried home remedies without relief. Then I decided to go to our family physician, but he didn't help them. Then I tried two more of our most prominent physicians, but my eyes grew continually worse. At this time a friend of mine advised me to try Cuticura Ointment, and after using it about one week my eyes were considerably improved and in two weeks they were almost well. They have never given me any trouble since. I was then sixty-three years old and am now sixty-five. I shall never fail to speak a word of praise for the Cuticura Remedies when I have an opportunity, and I trust that this letter may be the means of others being cured as I have been. G. B. Halsey, Mouth of Wilson, Grayson Co., Va., Apr. 4, 1908."

A Barber and Poet.

Jasmin, the Gascon poet, who was also a barber, was once visiting the mayor of a French town and had promised to give an informal recitation to the townspeople. The hour arrived, but his host did not appear. Several important personages assembled to accompany them to the hall, but the mayor remained invisible, busied with his toilet. Finally, fearing the impatience of his guests, he opened the door of his chamber to apologize and showed his face covered with lather.

"Just a moment," said he. "I am finishing my shaving."

"Oh," said Jasmin, "let me help you."

He at once doffed his coat, gave a finishing touch to the razor and shaved the mayor in a twinkling with what he called his "hand of velvet." In a few minutes he was in the hall receiving tumultuous applause for his splendid recitations.

For Diseases of the Skin.

Nearly all diseases of the skin such as eczema, tetter, salt rheum and barbers' itch, are characterized by an intense itching and smarting, which often makes life a burden and disturbs sleep and rest. Quick relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Salve. It allays the itching and smarting almost instantly. Many cases have been cured by its use. For sale by all druggists.

Marches and Marches.

A schoolteacher in a small town saw some of George Eliot's works displayed in the window of the "general store" and went in to inquire if they had "Middlemarch."

"No, we haven't that," said the red cheeked girl who served as clerk, "but we have lots of others. Will one of Sousa's do?"

COLOR WORDS.

Red Seems to Be the Favorite With Most of the Great Writers.

Upon tabulating the words used by Shakespeare referring to colors it revealed that out of every hundred color words thirty may be classed as red. Next follow twenty-two white, twenty black, seventeen yellow, seven green and only four blue. That Shakespeare's favorite color word was red, and investigation will show that this is the characteristic color of nearly all great writers. For instance, it is the color word most often employed by Tennyson.

In all great works of human literature red predominates, as it is the color of the very strongest of our passions and impulses—the color of hot blood. There is no color so warm, so full of joy and life, so overflowing with vitality.

Red is the color of glowing iron—of heat and passion. In nature red hastens the growth of trees, while at the same time it quickens all rotting and decay. Plans grown under red glass will grow four times as quickly as under white light, and grow to four times their usual height.

Red in excess has an evil effect. For example, an excess of red light makes one irritable and nervous. In excess red produces homicidal mania—the desire to kill. The effect of red upon various animals is well known, it having the power of enraging the bull, the tiger and the turkey.—London Scraps.

Prof. H. A. Howell, of Havana, Cuba, Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H A. Howell, of Howell's American School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd our baby was taken sick with a very severe cold; the next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now three days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by all druggists.

When Comets Terrified.

To Evelyn a comet was a terrifying phenomenon. He notes the appearance of one on Jan. 12, 1680, which he describes in his diary as "a meteor of an obscure bright color, very much in shape like the blade of a sword." "What this may portend," he adds, "God only knows, but such another phenomenon I remember to have seen in 1640 about the triall of the greate earle of Strafford, preceding our bloudy rebellion. I pray God avert his judgements."
